I have audited the accompanying balance sheet of Double Eagle Securities of America, Inc. as of December 31, 2003 and the related statement of income, cash flows, statement of shareholders equity, computation of net capital and basic net capital requirement for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of management. My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit.

I have conducted the audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. I believe my audit provides a reasonable basis for my opinion.

The audit of Double Eagle Securities of America, Inc. was conducted to assure compliance with NASD Rule 17a-5, which requires an annual audit of every Broker or Dealer registered pursuant to Section 15 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934. 2. NASDAQ Warrants

On December 1, 2000 the company purchased 200 warrants of The NASDAQ Stock Market, Inc. for $2,800. The warrant give the company the rights to purchase 200 common shares of The NASDAQ Stock Market, Inc.. The warrants are exercisable as follows:

June 28, 2002	June 27, 2003	$13.00
June 30, 2003	June 25, 2004	$14.00
June 28, 2004	June 27, 2005	$15.00
June 28, 2005	June 27, 2006	$16.00

Management finds it prudent at this time to establish an unrealized loss account in the equity section of the balance sheet in accordance with the lower of cost or market method to account for long term investment. The fact that the underlying security price is below the warrants exercise price, management feels is temporary, and that with improved conditions in the financial markets prior to the expiration of the warrants, current unrealized losses may possibility be mitigated.
